Prepare your website

1. Buy domain name (PAID)
2. Try to choose a good hosting service.
NAMECHEP (approx. 4 USD/month)
3. Use WordPress (free).
4. Choose the Astra template to get light and high website performances (free) (important).
5. Use the WP Legal Pages plugin to create privacy policy and terms and conditions pages to be compliant with GDPR and CCPA (paid approx. 8 USD/month) (Important).
6. Use a cookie compliance plugin like Cookyes (free) (important).
7. Create an about us page (important).
8. Create a contact us page (important); I use the Forminator plugin (free).
9. Use the asset cleanup plugin to preload local fonts and Google Fonts (free).
10. Test your website performance using <https://pagespeed.web.dev/>; your website must have a high score in the mobile and desktop versions. (important)

Write at least 10 articles using the DeepSeek AI service

- 1. Your content must align with AdSense policy. For example: NO copied content from any source NO adult content, NO violent content...you got it.
- 2. Use DeepSeek to generate articles related to your topic.
- 3. How to use DeepSeek correctly, You just need to write the correct prompt to get the correct result.
- 4. I can provide you my own recipe prompt with all processes needed as an ebook (paid).
- 5. After you generate the article, add your experience as a note inside the article to make it original and unique (2 notes per article at least).
- 6. Read my articles to see how I add notes to articles.
- 7. Convert any article image to webp. Don't forget to use only your images OR copyright-free images.

8. Sitemap: I use XML Sitemap Generator for Google 4.1.21 (important).
9. List your sitemap in the footer of the website.
10. If you are in the health, recipe, or food niche, you need to add a disclaimer at the top of each article; this is considered good practice.
11. Write at least 1200 words per article to be in the safe zone. (important)
12. Preload your home page images OR do not add an image at all in the beginning because you may face problems with Largest Contentful Paint and Cumulative Layout Shift. These issues make your website load slowly, so read more about that. (important)
13. Apply to AdSense and wait for 3 days.

Note: Make sure everything is set correctly. I hope you get that approval and start earning money from ads. Try to apply before the weekend.
